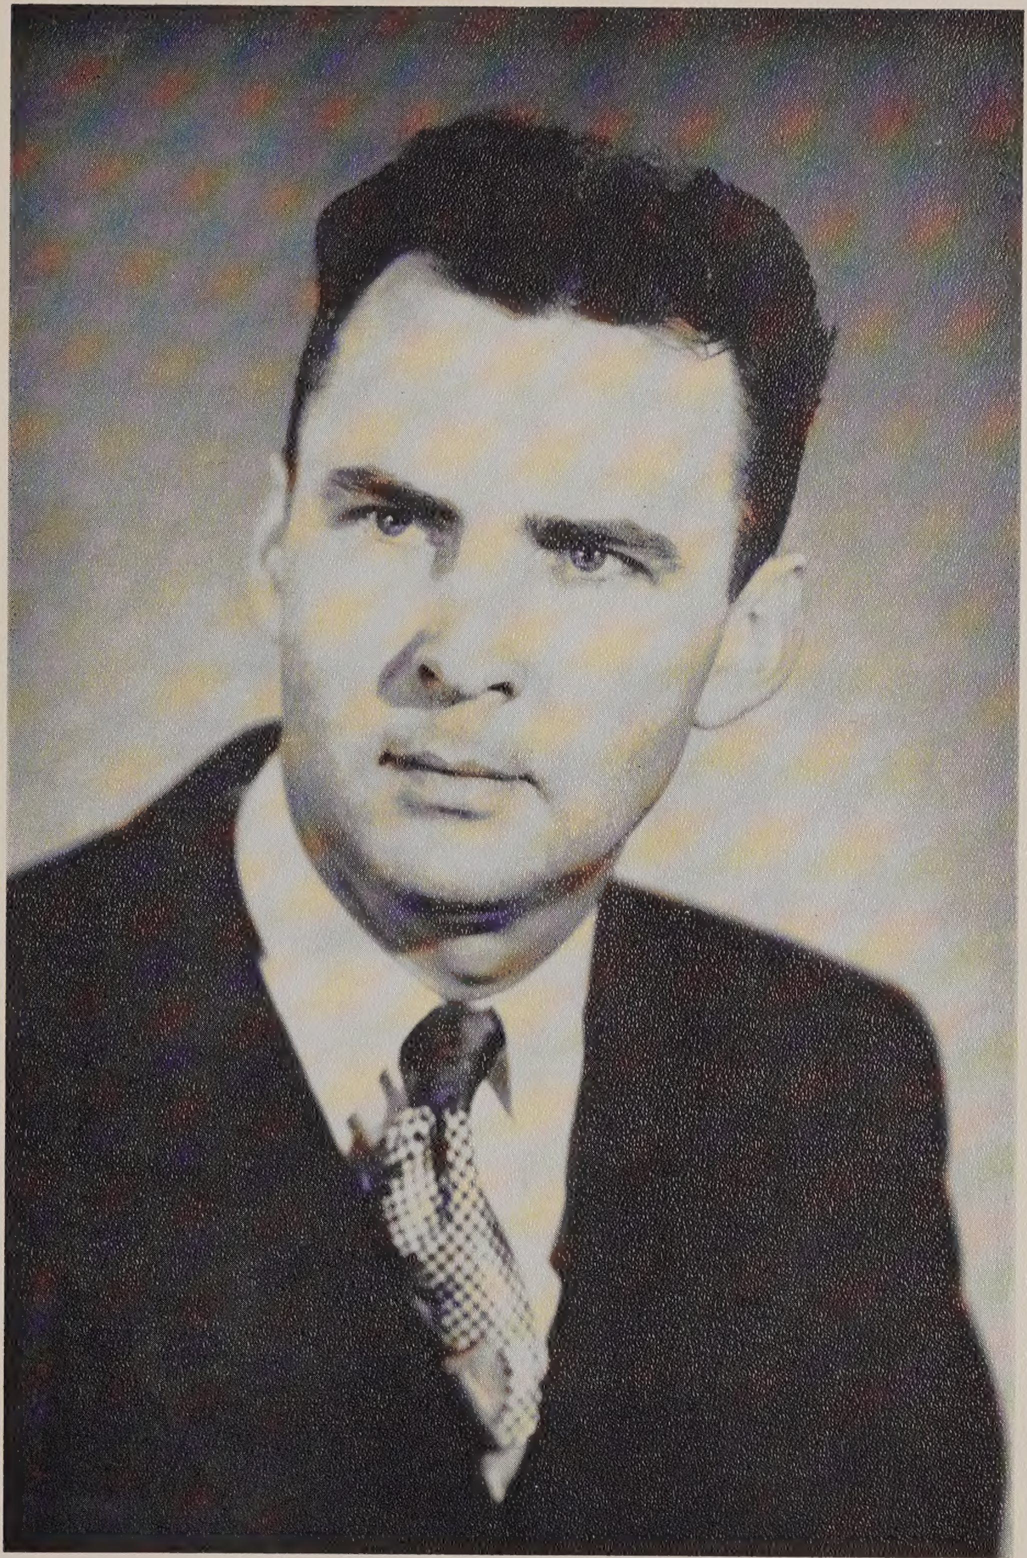
DEDICATION

Words cannot express our deep appreciation and gratitude to our unforgettable and dependable, kind and considerate companion—to our loyal and friendly advisor who has encouraged us through all our class activities; to James L. Turner, to "Dr. Jim," we gratefully dedicate this, the "Intermont" of 1951, a tribute to a memorable man.

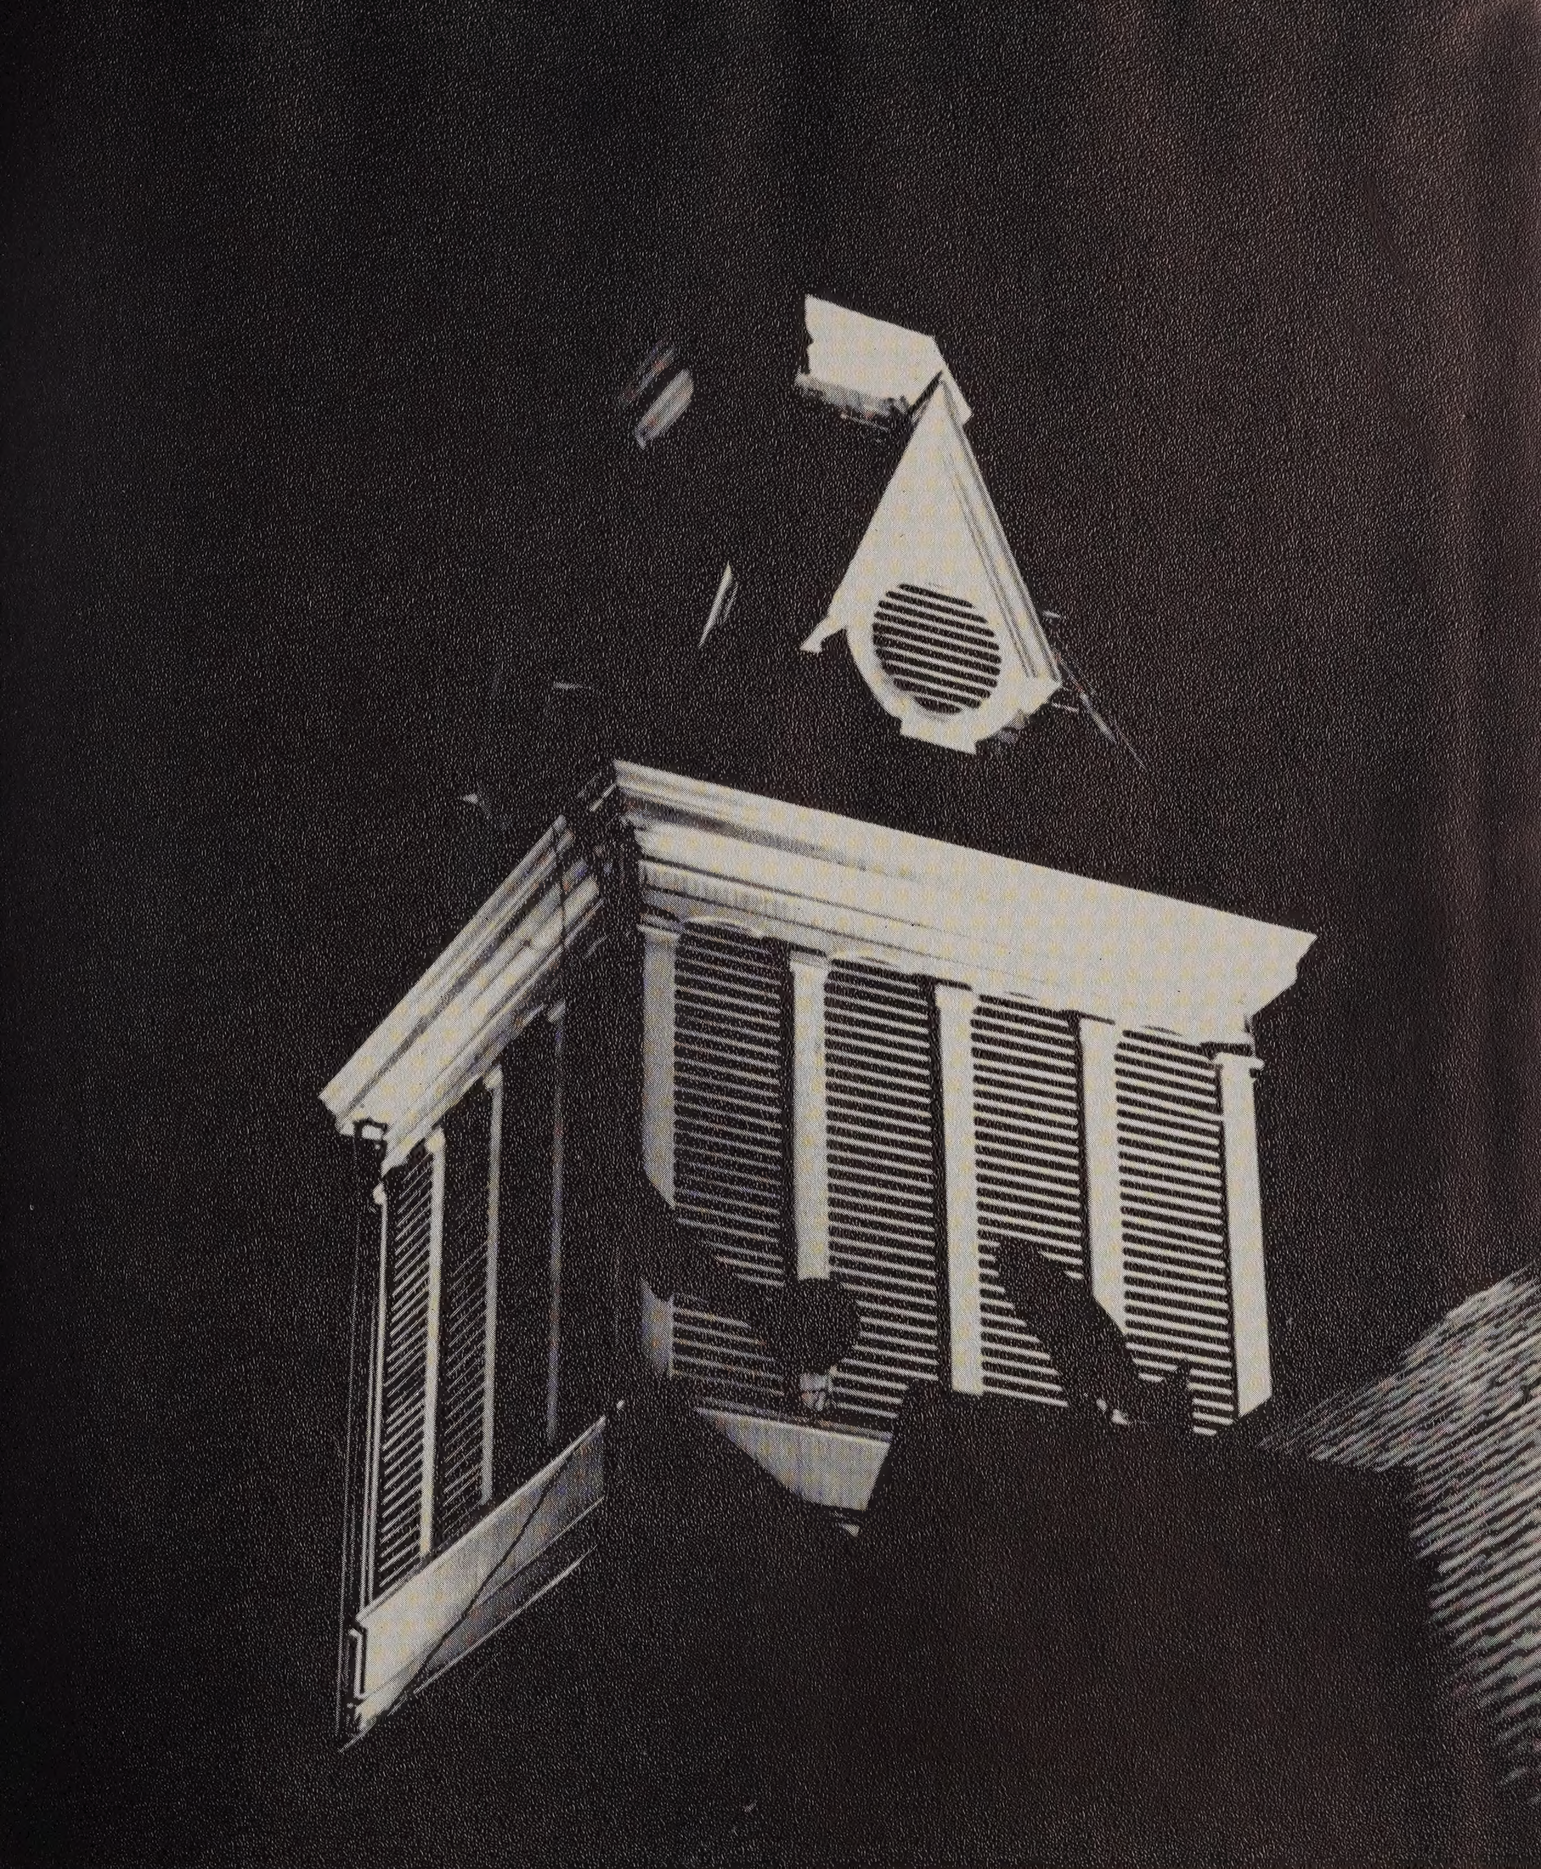


DR. JAMES LEE TURNER

IN BRISTOL TOWN STANDS V. I. C.—NO OTHER STANDS SO HIGH

UPON VIRGINIA'S MOUNTAIN LAND—BENEATH AN AZURE SKY

HER TOWERING WALLS RISE FROM A HILL—WHERE STATELY TREES ABOUND



AND MOON AND STARS KEEP SILENT WATCH—O'ER V. I.'S HALLOWED GROUND

Virginia Intermont after the turn of the century . . . and 1901

The Southwest Virginia Institute had an enrollment of 138 students and graduated 8 in 1901. It was located in Bristol on the border line of Virginia and Tennessee, an ideal location for a school. The Institute was on the edge of the city, three quarters of a mile from Main Street. An electric street-car line ran directly from the Union Passenger Depot to the Institute grounds.

The protectors and founders of the school had in view the establishing in the healthful, picturesque mountain region of Virginia an institution that would offer a higher education to the young women of the South.

Following the mid-point of the century

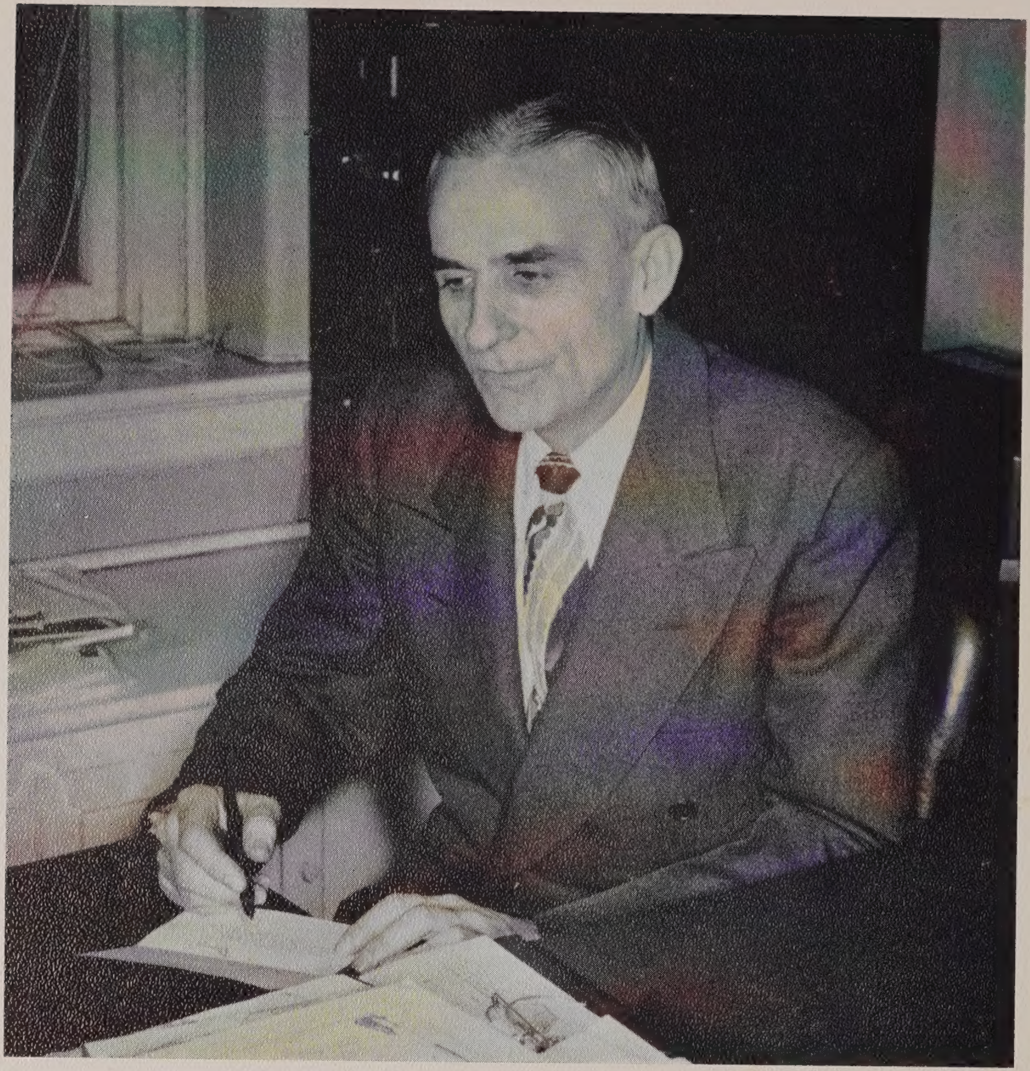
In 1951 we find our Alma Mater changed in name to Virginia Intermont College with an enrollment of 313 students and a graduating class of 102. The name "Intermont" (among the mountains) is descriptive of its location in the midst of the beautiful Alleghany Mountains.

The 1951 college, a Christian college, is striving to give primary consideration to moral and spiritual values. Then follow intellectual and physical training. If a woman is to be queen of her home she must have her social graces and artistic talents adequately trained. If she is to use wisely her leisure time she must learn to appreciate and to love the beauty in nature and art. If perchance she needs to be independent financially and make her own living she must receive training in the specific vocation to which she devotes her energies. V. I. is ever changing her program of study to meet these modern requirements of the modern college.

Administration and Faculty



DR. RABUN LEE BRANTLEY

President

It is difficult to express the feeling and admiration each of us has for Dr. Brantley. A loyal and sincere friend, he takes a personal interest in the happiness and activity of each student. He represents all the principles and ideals for which Intermont stands. His influence has guided each and every one of us throughout the school year.

He is a valuable member of the education world and has helped much to make Intermont what it is today. A member of several scholastic associations and an author, he has travelled widely. In 1947 he was elected president of the Southern Association of Junior Colleges, and in 1948 he held the position of president of the Southern Association of Colleges for Women.

Dr. Brantley received his B.A. and M.A. degrees at Mercer University and his Ph.D. at George Peabody College. He was professor of English and Journalism at Mary Harden Baylor College. At Bessie Tift College he was treasurer and head of the English and Journalism Departments. He served as Dean and professor of English at the University System of Georgia Evening College and for two years was editor of the Southern Automobile Journal.

MISS MARGUERITE PFLUG

Dean of Faculty

With her quiet dignity and high ideals, Miss Pflug serves as an example for us to follow. Every student respects her highly. In addition to helping us with our academic problems, Miss Pflug is also a wonderful French and German teacher.

Miss Pflug has attended preparatory schools in Austria, Germany, and Switzerland. She has also done work at the University of Berlin and the University of Geneva. She received her Ph.B. degree from John B. Stetson University here in the United States and received her A.M. degree from Columbia University.

ADMINI

Miss Josephine Fishel
Dean of Women

Who helps us with our most intimate problems and advises us in our many activities? . . . . Miss Fishel. The epitome of southern charm, she does her best to make everyone feel that V. I. is a second home. We know that she is vitally interested in everyone of us.

She received her B.A. degree at the University of North Carolina where she also served as assistant hostess. She acquired her M.A. degree at Louisiana State University where she had the position of Graduate Assistantship in the government department.

Assistant Dean of Women

SATURDAY
AMERICAN AIR

Mrs. E. L. Seay, better known as "Mumsy," is as much a part of V. I. as the tower or the ivy. Her graciousness and charming air of refinement are symbolic of the cultural ideals of Virginia Intermont. "Mumsy" will be immortal in all of our hearts and remembered as the wonderful person she really is.

Truly to know her is to love her.

STRATION

Mr. S. O. Snodgrass
Business Manager

V. I. is proud of its competent and efficient Business Manager, Mr. Snodgrass. He is always willing to be of assistance in any financial problem which may arise, and he is never too busy to bring us a popular movie.

Mr. Snodgrass received his A.B. degree from Emory and Henry College, has taught in Liberty Hall, Virginia High School, and was Principal of Barrack, Virginia High School.

Miss Ruth Compton
Religious Director

Sincerity, kindness, genuine friendship, and an understanding knowledge of human nature are just a few reasons why Miss Compton holds a special place in the hearts of the students and faculty. She is the symbol of Christianity to its fullest extent.

A native of South Carolina, she received her A.B. at Coker College and M.R.E. at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. We owe her our thanks for the establishment and success of the various religious organizations on the campus.

Tall and stylish, Miss Adamson is always ready to be of any help she can. In addition to being capable, she is a wonderful person to know. The combination of a pleasing voice and an extensive knowledge of French makes Mrs. Amis an admirable teacher. Unforgettable, friendly, kind, and understanding are only a few of the things which characterize one of our most beloved faculty members, Mr. Ayers. Miss Ball's sense of humor makes her a favorite among the students. She has genuine ability as a teacher and rarely do we find a person so perfectly a master of her art. A new faculty member on our campus is Mrs. Cantwell. She has all the qualities of a grand person and goes out of her way to extend help in any situation. Miss Marion Clark is noted for her efficiency, her ability as a math teacher, her sense of humor, and her willingness to work. Mr. Cooke, a true scholar with a wonderful store of knowledge, and a great sense of humor, tries his best to develop an appreciation of the finer arts in all his students. Mrs. Daly has not only a charming manner but genuine ability as a swimming instructor. Mr. Daniel is a remarkable man who has an opinion on every issue and can back it with an intelligent theory of explanation. Witty, stylish, and charming, Mrs. Daniel is a friend to all. Mr. Edmondson possesses a sense of humor as well as an intelligent mind. Mrs. Edwards, a person of pleasing personality, has a keen insight and mastery of horsemanship.

FACULTY

Miss Eller, our stylish music instructor, has a deep interest in her pupils and is noted for her ability and knowledge of music. Efficient, capable, kind, and considerate are only a few of the words which describe Miss Garrett. Young and cute, Miss Hefner has culture and charm which have set her among the best teachers. Her sense of humor and adaptibility make her loved by all students. Miss Herrink's willingness to help and her endless store of energy make her a popular figure on the campus. Mr. Jones unselfishly devotes all his time and effort to the success of the Drama Department and holds a special place in the hearts of all who come in contact with him. Miss Keezel, with her wonderful personality and ability for being tops in every sport, has become a favorite with all the girls. A true southern gentleman of charm and culture, Dr. Marion represents the very spirit of V. I. He is loved and respected by all his students. The perfect example of poise and refinement, Miss Meade is truly a lady. Miss Miller's consideration and interest in her students is gratefully appreciated. Her poise, knowledge, and charming personality are admired by all who know her. Mrs. Milne is always willing to give extra time to help her students. Her wonderful sense of humor and her ability to understand have made her an exceptional figure on our campus. Mr. Osthoff is a musician in every sense of the word. Mr. Pearce's ambition and knowledge make him an outstanding figure in the psychology field. His pleasant personality, charm, and sense of humor make him the object of admiration.

Mrs. Robinson's many talents are responsible for the quality exhibited by the V. I. orchestra. Her charming manner is admired by all her students. Miss Smith is always well-groomed, helpful, understanding, and an excellent example for her secretarial students to follow. A newcomer to the Secretarial Department is patient and sincere Miss Stewart. Her love for fun and activeness make her a popular faculty member. Miss Strong's attractiveness combined with her knowledge of the Spanish language make her classes truly interesting and enjoyable. Mr. Stull is responsible for the success of the Glee Club. His sense of humor and pleasing personality place him as an object of admiration. Words cannot express all our love and admiration for Dr. Turner. His kindness, sincerity and thoughtfulness will never be forgotten. Beloved by the entire high school is Mrs. Willet, with her gracious and kind manner. Vivacious Mrs. Bowman is always busy as can be with her work in the Alumnae Office, but can find time for a pleasant greeting. Quiet, but a most efficient and helpful secretary is Miss Cooper. Always laughing, energetic, friendly and full of fun are only a few of Mrs. Crockett's qualities. She is a confident and diligent worker. Sweet, kind, and never without a smile is one of Dr. Brantley's capable secretaries, Miss June Eller. Mrs. Fritsche's eagerness to be of assistance to all in the bookstore is well-appreciated. Her pleasant manner and friendliness are characteristic of the V. I. spirit.

Mrs. Mansfield is worthy of the respect of the students. Her interest in the building and the rooms has made V. I. more like home. With a friendly smile, Mrs. Pearce is always charming and cooperative. Warm-hearted and friendly Mr. Roberts is "Johnny on the spot" when we need him most. Our hats go off to him! A newcomer to V. I. is Mrs. Sheppard. Her pleasant attitude and willingness to nurse us has added a cheerful atmosphere to the infirmary. Mrs. Taft is friendly and always willing to be of assistance in the Account's Office. With her attractive personality and efficiency, Mrs. White makes a wonderful addition to the V. I. staff. Our thanks to her for planning the House Party Weekend. The motherly Mrs. Craft is always patient and thoughtful toward her girls. Her generosity and gracious manner have made her a favorite among all. Mrs. Hammer has a place in all her girls' hearts and is loved and respected by everyone. Sweet, little "Mom Painter" will always be remembered as a considerate and friendly housemother. "Mom" Taylor's loveliness and wonderful personality will long be remembered by all the Senior Hall girls. "Mama T." has a wonderful sense of humor and attitude toward the girls which have made her beloved by all.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

This year the Seniors anticipated the regular events even more eagerly because they knew what to expect. With great satisfaction they saw their own queen crowned at the annual Harvest Carnival. Then preparations for the Song Contest were zooming along before they knew it. Under the leadership of the song leader, determined Seniors learned words in cramped little practice rooms, walked through freezing weather to sessions at the Hut every night, and longed with all their hearts to become the first class in Intermont history to chalk up a Song Contest victory two years in succession. When the night arrived, they filed into the gym wearing their red and white, and they sang—sang the best they knew how, with every heart full of the knowledge of what V. I. meant to each and what the victory could mean to the class. The judges conferred. With unbelieving ears the class heard the decision. The sincere joy caused the Song Contest of 1950 to crown three winners: Seniors officially, but the Juniors and High School for their wonderful sportsmanship. . . . . February found a determined group of Seniors successfully hiding the effigy in the boiler room and then putting a basketball team on the floor that night that edged out the Juniors by a narrow margin. . . . . On April 9 the Junior Class was host to the Seniors at the traditional Junior-Senior banquet. To all, this climaxed the whole year of friendship between the two sister classes. . . . . The days of the class of '51 were numbered. All the time-honored, traditional commencement events drew swiftly near and were only cherished memories before it seemed possible. The mention of commencement week at V. I. will always call up a battalion of nostalgic memories for every girl in the Class of '51: The thrilling excitement of the colorful Horse Show; the warm glow of torches at Torchlight, and the swelling of sad voices in school songs; the lighthearted pageantry and beauty of May Day; the solemnity of Baccalaureate at the First Baptist Church; and finally the indescribable moment of graduation . . . . Yankee, Southerner, Westerner, and Spanish-American—all together for the last time. Somehow the feel of the diplomas in their hands wasn't quite so satisfying when they knew they were looking at V. I.'s old brick walls as students for the last time. Their life as a class completed, the Seniors left the green hill where V. I. stands, with hearts regretful for the ending of the happy days there, but hearts that were also cheerful in the knowledge that a part of Intermont would always go with them.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Green and White, Fight!!! This is the cry of the many brave and bold Juniors who have showed their great fighting spirit all during the year. This year, our first year at V. I., really was wonderful. . . . . First came Rat Day, and the fun we had that day will not be forgotten. . . . . Then came the Song Contest which means so much to every one of us now—the long hours of work, the thrill, and, best of all, the great sportsmanship will never be forgotten. . . . . The effigy hunt and the Junior-Senior basketball game. These things that we have done will live in our hearts forever as we leave these ivy-covered walls and go out into the world.

SCIENCE

The chemistry courses taught here are General Chemistry, Qualitative Analysis, Quantitative Analysis, and high school Chemistry. Dr. S. J. Marion, head of the science department, teaches the college courses while Mr. Samuel Edmondson teaches the high school courses. Virginia Intermont is one of the few junior colleges to offer such an extensive course in chemistry.

A cross section of the high school Biology class.

Anna Lee, lab assistant, helps to instruct the students of chemistry.

BIO-CHEM CLUB

The Bio-Chem Club is composed of chemistry and biology students. It is sponsored by Dr. S. J. Marion and Mrs. Daniel.

President .... Anna Lee Thackston
Vice President .... Emily Taylor
Secretary-Treasurer .... Joan Addington

DEPARTMENT

The Physics course offered at Virginia Intermont is taught by Miss Marion Clark. It is an intensive course in which many interesting experiments are carried out. The students learn how new scientific developments are constructed and something of their use.

Mrs. Daniel is the instructor of both college and high school General Biology. The course includes Botany, Zoology, Bacteriology, and Physiology. This department has been developed greatly during the past two years.

SECRETARIAL SCIENCE

The Secretarial Science Department prepares the student for the business world not only by teaching the usual shorthand and typing courses but also by including the academic subjects necessary for the business woman.

Mr. Harold E. Ayers, head of the department, teaches Economics and Accounting. Each course provides a girl with the needed background.

The Shorthand class is busy taking dictation.

A cross-section of the high school typing class.

Shorthand and typing are taught by Miss Mary Lou Smith and Miss Stewart, respectively. Both subjects run hand in hand as the students strive for greater accuracy and speed.

Upon graduation the secretarial majors are ready to secure positions in the business office as clerks, typists, stenographers, and secretaries.

A group from Mr. Ayers' Accounting class.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE

Under the supervision of Miss Dora Miller, head of the department, and Mrs. Cantwell, a wide variety of interesting and helpful subjects are offered. Extensive work in canning, meal planning and preparation, etiquette, child care, selection of clothing, designing, construction and fitting of clothing, and history of fabrics is incorporated into classes under the general headings: Nutrition and Foods; Textiles and Clothing; and Home Management. To add interest and aid in practical application of information, visits are made to various stores. Luncheons, teas, and a fashion show are given by the students to encourage better work and recognize achievement. Home Economics prepares one for many careers in this field.

The traditional style show illustrates the application of the things learned.

ART

Wonderful opportunities are available at Intermont for anyone interested in art. Under Miss Ruby Ball, head of the department, and Miss Betty Hefner, teacher of art, one may get a foundation for entering any field of commercial art.

Jackie poses for the class.

Majors practice quick sketching out of doors.

The Art Club with Miss Ball as sponsor tries to create a greater interest in art. Their projects for the year include a tea and an art exhibit held in the spring. Plans are being made to decorate the Student Government room. Meetings are held once a month.

When an art major graduates from V. I. she is qualified to enter any art school of her choice. Art majors are instructed in Drawing and Painting, Art Appreciation, Art Structure, and Introduction to Art during their first year. Included in their second year course are Advanced Drawing and Painting.

A student may specialize in some phase of Applied Art. Mr. C. Ernest Cooke teaches a course in History of Art. Home Economics Art is offered for the majors in that field. Several field trips are taken by the majors including a weekend trip to the Smokies. Works of art by students and faculty are exhibited at Intermont annually. The regional art exhibit is also held here. Mr. Cooke meets with an Art Interest Group every Sunday evening at his home.

Mr. Cooke explains an El Greco painting to the art appreciation class.

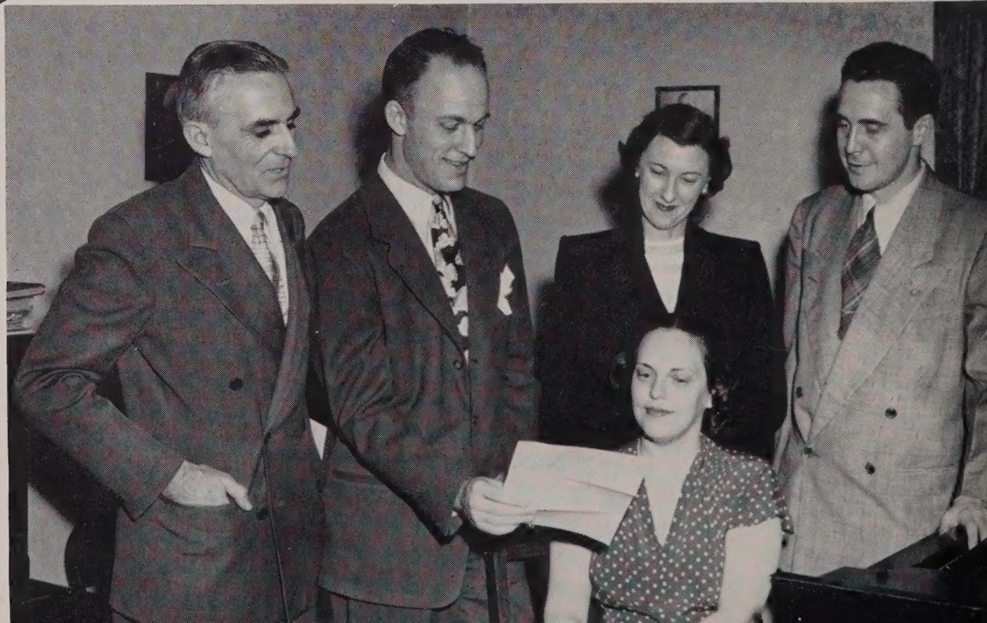
MUSIC

Intermont's outstanding department of music offers courses in Music Theory, Introduction to Music (for majors), History of Music, Music Appreciation (for non-majors), Piano Ensemble, and Orchestra. Private lessons in voice, piano, organ, and violin are given also. Members of the music faculty are: Mr. Ralph Osthoff, head of the department and teacher of piano; Mr. Robert Stull, teacher of voice and conductor of the Glee Club; Miss Frances Eller, teacher of piano and organ; Mrs. Arlene Robinson, teacher of violin and theory; and Mrs. Robert Stull, director of the orchestra.

Orchestra

Faculty members look at V. I.'s letter of membership to the National Association of Schools of Music.



Sue Earnshaw practices her solo.

This year Intermont was admitted to associate membership in the National Association of Schools of Music. This is the highest recognition in the field of music which can come to a college.

There are numerous opportunities for the girls at Intermont to attend recitals given by the students or faculty of the department. Every month student recitals are given, and graduation recitals are given by senior majors. Piano majors are given a chance to criticize their own work and that of others at Mr. Osthoff's seminars.

The outstanding and well-known Glee Club is directed by Mr. Stull, and the orchestra by Mrs. Stull.

When a music major graduates from Intermont, she may continue her studies at any school of her choice. She may apply for a teacher's certificate, plan a career in radio, or become a professional musician. The Department of Music offers scholarships every year to high school graduates who are outstanding in the field of music.

DRAMA DEPARTMENT

Working in the Drama Department of Virginia Intermont for the 1950-51 session were 6 senior majors, 8 junior majors, and a group of elective students. The two-year major program consists of 42 semester hours in Acting, Speech, History of the Theatre, Stagecraft, Radio, Directing, and Play Production. Under Mr. Wm. Ellis Jones, head of the department, 3 full-length productions and 8 one-act plays were given this year. The three-act plays were "Ladies in Retirement", "Nine Girls", and "Brief Music". The one-act plays were "The Dabblers", "Night Club", "A Minuet", "Aria de Capo", "Crime for Tea", "As It Was in the Beginning", "Princess Marries a Page", and "Nobody Sleeps". In addition, a recital was given in the spring by the senior majors.

DRAMA DEPARTMENT

Students of the drama department attend various productions given in the vicinity of the school. These include productions of other schools and those given by the Barter Theatre in Abingdon. During the school year the drama students are always in demand for community programs, and during the summer months, many work in radio and with summer stock companies. Virginia Intermont's Drama Department is one of the finest found in any junior college.

The Curry Club is made up of all the members of the drama department and all students taking any work in the department. It was organized in 1932 by the late Miss Rhoda Nunnally, who was the head of the department. It was named for Dr. Silas Curry, founder of the famous School of Expression in Boston. The purpose of the club is to unite its members in a deeper and a more intelligent interest in the theatre.

DANCE

The Dance Department at Virginia Intermont is under the direction of Miss Herrink. The course offers modern and ballet instruction with advanced, intermediate, and beginner classes in each. The students learn to perfect dance forms already constructed and the art of performing their own original dances. Several times during the school year the classes combined to present Work Shops which illustrated the choreography of the students. Various Bristol organizations secure the talent of the dance department for shows.

DANCE

Junior Orchesis is the junior branch of the national organization, Senior Orchesis. Membership in Junior Orchesis is the highest honor for which modern dance students strive. Miss Herrink, sponsor of the club, with members of the previous years select members from the modern dance classes on the basis of their ability of choreography. The prospective members go through a period of pledging at the end of which they are initiated. Junior Orchesis was founded at V. I. in 1945 by Mrs. George McIntyre.

PHYSICAL

Archery

Miss Gale Keezel is head of the Physical Education Department. Mrs. Daly, swimming instructor; Miss Herrink, dance teacher; and Mrs. Elsie Edwards, teacher of equitation, make up the rest of the staff.

A major in Physical Education prepares one to teach in any high school or college having a Physical Education department. One is also qualified to teach Health, Hygiene, and First Aid. Many summer jobs are obtainable also. Summer camps are always pleased to have physical education majors working for them. These jobs are enjoyable to anyone liking camp life.

EDUCATION

No student should plan to enter this field as a major unless she is physically able to participate in all sports. The first two years are similar to a pre-nursing course plus Physical Education Theory—consisting of the rules and regulations of all sports.

V. I.'s Physical Education Department offers the best of courses to those interested in the field.

EQUITATION

Horseback riding on the campus is an extremely popular sport. The stable is modern, and the horses are suitable for teaching the beginner as well as the experienced rider. Those students taking riding have classes twice a week. These classes include lectures on the parts of the horse, correct riding habits, mounting and dismounting, and actual riding to put into practice those things studied in theory. Each year a Horse Show is given, and prizes are awarded to the outstanding student in the Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced classes. Mrs. Edwards is the instructor in the course.

All students are members of the Student Government Association. The Student Council represents the entire student body and tries to impress upon every student that she, herself, is a member of the organization. The Student Council representatives have three major purposes—to represent the best interests of the student body; to secure cooperation among the different organizations at Intermont; and to promote responsibility, self-reliance, and loyalty on the part of the student.

The Student Council sponsors many activities during the year climaxing with the Student Government Formal Dance in the spring.

by, and for the Students

The honor system was recently established at Virginia Intermont to instill in each girl a sense of honor. The purpose of the Honor Council is to make each student feel a sense of responsibility for herself and her classmates and to rule on all cases involving serious offences.

The Honor Council is composed of the following members: the Academic Dean; the Dean of Women; three other Faculty members appointed by the President of the College; one other member from the Senior Class elected by the students; and the Presidents of the Senior, Junior, and High School Classes.

V. I. is proud of her successful honor system as well as the girls who, by their actions, make it work.

The Y. W. C. A. is one of the oldest, most active, and well-rounded organizations on the campus. Each student automatically becomes a member of the organization upon enrolling at V. I. The members regularly supervise the recreation of the children at the Janie Hammitt Home. Each year proceeds from the Harvest Carnival are contributed to the Home, and at the Y. W. C. A. Christmas party every girl plays "Santa Claus" to one of the children. On the campus, the organization plays an important part in the social activities which include teas, parties, and "Peanut Week." Miss Ada Strong and Mrs. Harrison Daniel are the sponsors.

The Four-H Club is an organization of girls who are or have been Four-H members. It is the largest organization of rural youth in America and is carried on through the cooperation of the State Agriculture Extension Service and the United States Department of Agriculture. Its purpose is to promote better home and community living. Four-H Club work develops community leadership, pride, and spirit. Above all, it develops the highest type of manhood, womanhood, and American citizenship.

The Areannes, official name of the Day Students' Club, is one of the most active groups on the campus. Several parties and outings have been held where a good time and lots of food were the outstanding features. The bright spot of the year was the Fall Formal given for the boarding students. Known as the "free ones", the Areannes are ready and willing to enter into any campus activity and act as hostesses to the out of town girls.

Orientation Board Meets.

A few of us had the pleasure of coming back early in order to plan various activities for the new students before class time rolled around. What a pleasure it was even if the mayor wasn't on hand to present us with the key to the city.

Yep! They made it—on trains, buses, and planes. New students came from all directions excited and eager to start the school year.

A great time was had by all at the Y. W. C. A. campus picnic. But what could you expect, delicious food, wide open spaces, and blue jeans just seem to spell fun and laughter.

No, not a crystal ball —not even a fortune teller—even better—"This is Intermont" show presented by the old students—Yes, the new students certainly got a quick glimpse into the future.

OF EVENTS

OCTOBER

Don't tell me they only play hockey on ice! Why you haven't seen anything until you witness the traditional field hockey games at V. I. The cheering section as well as the players personify pep and vigor.

Who ever heard of a sunny day for a Kiwanis picnic? Don't be ridiculous. Who needs the sun with men, food, cars, and games? We all will remember the thoughtfulness of the men who planned this day of fun for us.

"Juniors, the Seniors are after you today".

The campus was really booming today, so early too. High heels, blue jeans, pin curls, eyeshadow, and goodness knows what else. We hardly recognized them. I can truthfully say that I've never seen better sports or had a cleaner room.

Hockey Game.

Charm Week was wonderful; and we loved every day of helpful hints for beauty and charm. We chose Yolanda Gonzalez for our Miss Charming of 1950.

NOVEMBER

The Seniors weren't the only ones who looked forward to the coming of the Harvest Carnival. The Juniors had heard so much about it they could hardly wait. When the big event rolled around, it lived up to everyone's expectations. We were all proud of our Carnival Queen, Betty Armstrong, who represented the Senior Class.

V. I. students and faculty turned out "en masse" to sign the freedom scrolls which were to be placed in a large Freedom Bell. The bell was placed in the heart of Berlin filled with the scrolls signed by people from nations all over the world.

Harvest Carnival

Signing of Freedom Scroll

Yes, it was here at last. After long hours of practice the High School, Juniors, and Seniors were ready to sing their praises to V. I. In the annual Song Contest the judges chose the Senior class victor, but as far as sportsmanship was concerned all classes were winners.

Thanksgiving Banquet

My, but it didn't take Thanksgiving long to roll around. Of course our hearts longed for our family, friends, and traditional turkey dinner; but those of us who couldn't make it home enjoyed V. I.'s formal dinner.

DECEMBER

"Ladies in Retirement".

Christmas Formal.

Last year the Drama Department always had some delightful plays in store for us, but this year they went all out. They gave three glorious performances of "Ladies in Retirement" starring Francis Ballard, who starred in the same production on Broadway.

It was a wonderful feeling playing Santa Claus at the Y. W. C. A. Christmas Party for the children of the Janie Hammit Home and Goodwill Center. You should have seen their faces light up when they saw all the lovely gifts. After that day we all had a better understanding of the true spirit of Christmas.

The V. I. gym was truly a winter wonderland on the eve of our Christmas Formal. We had our dresses pressed days ahead of time, and we wandered around in a daze anticipating the arrival of dates. It was a wonderful night from the first dance until the closing strains of "White Christmas."

It seems like only yesterday that the dining room held voices singing "Hark, the Herald Angels Shout, 102 days 'till we get out." After sitting on suitcases and staying up half the night rehearsing our triumphant return home, it was all we could do to drag ourselves to the train. At any rate we waved a fond farewell to V. I. for a joyous Christmas Vacation.

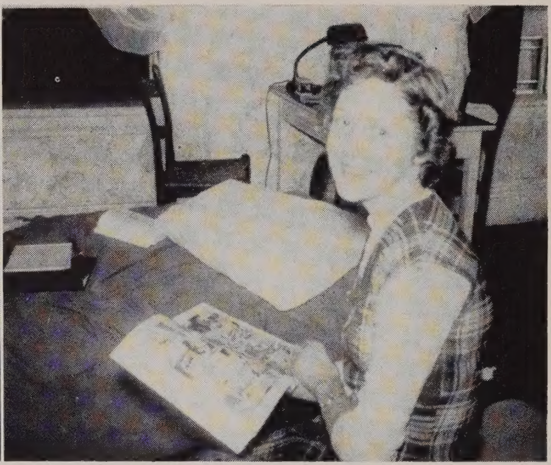
Going Home.

JANUARY

First night back after Christmas.



Cramming for exams.

Well, we made it back—bag and baggage. Some of us with new beaus, clothes, and a few lucky ones with diamonds. We were up half the night exchanging experiences. No doubt we'll still be talking about it next Christmas.

During exam week we all agree that all work and no play just isn't right. What else would be more relaxing than a party at Miss Pflug's cabin?

Where there's smoke there's fire, and where there's school exams seem inevitable. We can say that they came even though the faculty seems to think that they conquered. Oh, well, life can be beautiful.

No, it isn't the Boston Tea Party. It's an Exam Week Tea sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. It may not go down in history, but we found it a welcome event during our week of toil.

FEBRUARY

Effigy Hunt.

Junior-Senior Basketball Game.

The day of the effigy hunt found various spiders, bugs, and what have you with as much company as they could handle. The Juniors looked everywhere—even in coal bins and dark tunnels—while the Seniors lived in mortal fear of having the chimes ring out signifying the little effigy had been found. By-the-way, they didn't find it.

For weeks the faculty crept silently about; they even stayed late in the chapel. There were all sorts of noises; drums, tapping of feet, songs, and even Charleston music. Guess What? The Faculty Frolics. . . and what frolics! Opening night found the chapel packed and our faculty members with true showmanship playing to a delighted audience.

For the Seniors the basketball game was the end of a perfect day. Mercy, were we scared! The score was so close that the last half found us in a frenzy.

Climaxing Peanut Week was the annual formal banquet. This was the time when all the mysteries that puzzled us during the week were revealed. Yep, at long last you learned the identity of your shell.

MARCH

Alice, Editor of the Cauldron, is presented to the spectators during the program.

Barbara, Editor of Intermont, walks through the ring after her presentation.

V. I. was really rocking the weekend of March 9th and 10th when the Annual and Cauldron staffs gave the school the very first dance weekend in its history. Dates, students, alumnae, and faculty agreed that it was a great success. On Friday night there was an informal dance. Everyone had such a big time that it was difficult to gather up enough energy for the main event on Saturday night. The Publications Formal was truly the climax of a perfect weekend. Both staffs worked for weeks to make it possible for this dance to be the best ever. Believe me. It was! The gym was cleverly decorated carrying out a color scheme of black and white. Words cannot describe the orchestra for the occasion. The musicians certainly added their share of music and entertainment to the evening. We owe so much to both staffs not only for the unforgettable weekend of dances, but also for all their unselfish work throughout the year.

OF EVENTS

APRIL

We certainly owe a great big "thank you" to the Juniors for a lovely Senior Banquet. The entertainment was swell and the food was just out-of-this-world. Yes, sir. Our hats are off to you. You did a wonderful job.

As true as Tuesday comes after Monday . . . we have a birthday every year. I guess we'll just have to grin and bear it. We aren't getting any younger you know. The Y. W. C. A. sponsored a formal dinner to wish everyone a happy birthday.

Junior-Senior Banquet.

Dreamy music and a beautifully decorated gym furnished a fitting back-ground for the girls and fellows at the Spring Formal. Just think, this is the last time we seniors can cash in on the girl break plan.

MAY

Horse Show.

On the day of the Horse Show the nearness of graduation became a reality to us. Yes indeed, graduation weekend got off to a big start. Our fathers thought it was tops, and we all agreed that it was the best ever.

May Day was certainly something to see. Goodness, what an array of beauties. We were all so proud of our lovely May Queen, Sally Thrower. Also, today the dance students under the direction of Miss Herrink, added another star to their record in presenting a gorgeous pageant for the Queen and her court.

Torchlight.

Baccalaureate Sunday.

The torchlight ceremony was truly impressive. It made us all feel the impact of what V. I. had meant to us during the year. The thought of leaving in a few days was a sorrowful one this time.

It seems so strange . . . almost like a dream—that our two years at V. I. are suddenly coming to an end. Yes, it's graduation, and we must leave.

Baccalaureate Sunday . . . solemn and impressive, made us stop to realize what V. I. had given us; and it made us wonder what we had given in return.

Some of us are going home, some to school, some to work, and even a few making the way to the altar. While looking forward to the future, it's hard to leave the school we've become so much a part of and our friends who mean so much to us. Our days spent here will always remain among our fondest memories.

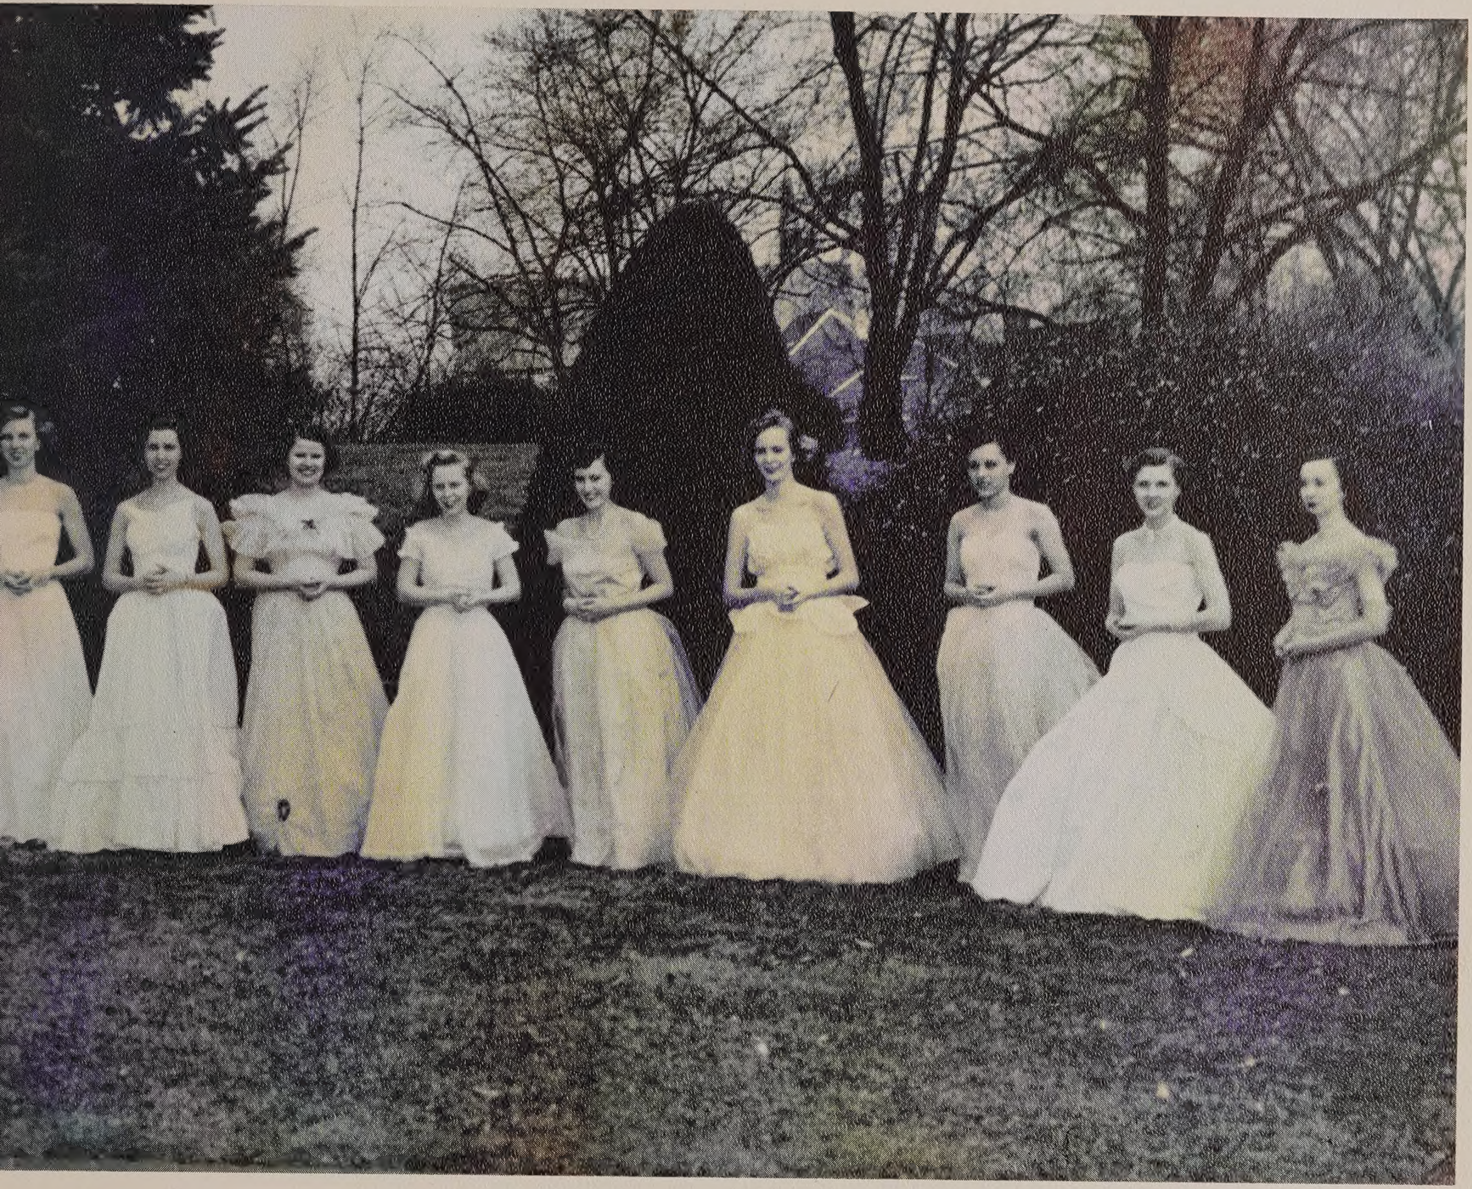
J. Anderson, C. Allers, E. Mallan, A. Houser, M. Broas, B. Miller, S. Quillen, J. Winston, B. Rose.

The May Court is composed of girls symbolic of dignity, charm, majesty, poise, and true beauty. These girls represent all that is beautiful in word, thought, and deed.

COURT



J. Trainham, A. Craft, M. Eller, W. Whitescarver, B. Armstrong, M. Thomas, J. Addington, R. Longhurst, C. Gardner.

As these girls walk down the lovely path into the dell where the Queen of May is crowned they will bear on their shoulders the beauty of the May and the spirit of V. I.

TORCHBEARERS

Seated: N. Banker, M. Eller, D. Currin, J. Trainham, G. Jones, S. Thrower.
Standing: J. Austin, R. Shawkey, B. Moon, B. Fraley.

Torchbearers—the bearers of the light of faithfulness and everything for which it stands—strong character, charm, dependability, and leadership. These girls represent the true spirit of service to their fellow students, to their class, and to V. I. Torchbearers are characterized by their humility and genuine friendship. These ten girls with their sincerity and willingness to work will long be remembered by all their classmates.

Our Dads

To our dads, the most wonderful men in the world, who have so unselfishly and untiringly given their all to the betterment of our lives; who are always there to lend a helping hand when we need it most . . . we lovingly dedicate this page of our 1951 "Intermont."

BUNTING'S FOR DRUGS

Bunting's touches the life of Virginia Intermont as closely as any business in Bristol. It is a great satisfaction to us to know that our Pharmaceutical Department has cooperated with the College Infirmary for many years in protecting the health of V.I. students. All of your films from the bookstore are finished in our Photographic Department, and our Soda Fountain and Toilet Department have always catered to Bristol students. We appreciate your patronage.

CONFIDENCE

Confidence has nothing to do with age or size. Though we're old in years and the largest store in this region, we're built on the confidence our customers have placed in us as a store of integrity, honest merchandising and truthful advertising. Your confidence is the main thing we prize . . . and trust that we may continually merit.
